Greetings of Peace and joy
from Santan Lobo

How are you? Hope you are fine and
keeping good health.
I am with my family members.

This academic year
was full of studies
and other co-curricular activities, since from the time of corona.

This year every thing was normal, schools and colleges and study other than sitting idle at home.
Hope this continues.

To say about studies
I have completed my mid term examination
and I am studying
hard for my final exam.

Christmas: yes its the time to celebrate
and this is the most beautiful time
of entire year.

I along with my family members
wish you a
merry Christmas
and a Happy New Year - 2022

May baby Jesus
fill your home
with lots of blessing and your hearts with joy, love
and peace

Yours lovingly

Santan Lobo

Dear Friends,

God wants to give us the best that He has. That is why He gave His only Son. This is what we celebrate during Christmas - God with us. So throughout this Christmas season let us remind ourselves that "God is with us."

In this joyful season, we would like to say that we are very grateful to the help you have extended to us through Diecézní Katolická Charita in Hradec Králové. Thanks to your generosity and kindness, we are able to support the education of many children in the Diocese of Belgaum, India. We pray that Child Jesus may reward you and your family with peace, health and happiness.

We wish you a
Merry Christmas
and a Happy and Prosperous New Year 2023!
